Wycombe find the Avenue too experienced

Sports Mail Special Report

WALTHAMSTOW A. 3 1 WYCOMBE W. 1

WALTHAMSTOW were much too experienced for Wycombe Wanderers in their Isthmian League game at Green Pond Road this afternoon, and thoroughly deserved their 3-1 win. Wycombe made one change from their selected team, this was at centre forward, where Jimmy Hay came in for Peter James, who is still suffering from influenza.

Walthamstow Avenue: McGuire: Jim Lewis again showed his Betts, L. Harvey; Andrews, Prince class when putting Stone Edwards; Groves, Minall. Lewis through, but Beck cleared.

Wycombe Wanderers: Brown; Beck. ewis: Thomas Gale. Ashby; Worley Lewis: Thomas Gale Ashby; Wor Howson, Hay Blair, Horseman. Referee: H. E. Jones (Oxford).

Minall to head on to Jim Lewis and Howson, showing great and LEWIS shot easily past determination wingers always troubled the Wycombe defence.

and a shot by Hay was well penalty area saved by McGuire.

McGuire again saved well when a Horseman shot looked of fun while a dog was escorted set for goal. Worley and How-off the pitch but Walthamstow

Walthamstow then had Wy-lattack. combe in trouble when a Harvey centre was misjudged by Brown. but Lewis headed off the line

Wycombe's new combination, was settling down well but Walthamstow looked the more dangerous when attacking.

After 30 minutes J. Lewis centred and the ball was neatly headed on to MINNAL, who scored Walthamstow's second.

Jim Lewis again showed his

Half-time: Walthamstow 2. Wycombe W. 0an

Walthamstow opened Walthamstow took only two second half with a bang, and minutes to score when right Brown twice made brilliant winger Groves crossed for saves But Wycombe came back in his senior game of the season, had Walthamstow kept pressing a good shot well saved by Mc-and crosses from the two Guire.

After a good run, Gale put Hay through but he shot Minall slid an accurate pass weakly. Walthamstow increased through for Groves but he shot their lead after 23 minutes play EDWARDS when left-half Wycombe recovered, however, scored from just outside the

NO JOKING

There was a brief interlude set for goal, worley and the place of the son carved out an opening but were in no joking mood and Beck shot just over the bar. soon swept back into the

But it was Wycombe who scored when, with a quarter of an hour to go, right back BECK scored a fine goal with a shot that rocketed into the net from just outside the area.

In Wycombe's last attack Worley split the home defence but Hay shot over from about six yards.

WALTHAMSTOW 3 WYCOMBE

WYCOMBE ARE OFF-TARGET

Walthamstow 3 Wycombe 1 YYCOMBE had only them-selves to blame for this Isthmian League defeat. They made a great effort in the closing stages but vital chances were wasted.

were wasted.

Wycombe were 3—0 with 10 minutes to go when right-back Beck moved upfield as part of the visitors rally. A pass from outsideright Worley enabled Beck to beat Walthamstow goalkeeper McGuire from 35 yards.

Wycombe might have cut Walthamstow's lead still further but a shot from right-half Thomas a few minutes later went just over the bar.

Walthamstow went ahead after two minutes when Lewis rounded off a fine move between Groves and Minall. It was Minall who scored Walthamstow's second, following a Harvey pass from a Lewis cross.

Left half Edwards cashed in on some slack Wycombe marking to crack home the third goal.